

NAMI's Ask the Expert Webinar: Cultural Competence in Psychiatry

Event Date & Time: Thursday 13 September 2018, 04:00 PM - 05:30 PM, (GMT-05:00) Eastern Time (US and Canada) (Please note that Daylight Saving Time (+01:00 hr) is in effect during this time)

As a member of NAMI, you have the opportunity to register in advance for this free webinar. As a gesture of our thanks for your support and involvement, advance registration is open ONLY to NAMI members and leaders.

The program is an overview of cultural psychiatry. It will introduce participants to the history of psychiatry and its effort to avoid political and social pressures aimed at shaping and redefining the practice. Participants will

- gain insight into the way diseases are classified
- explore how different cultures accept psychiatry as an important field of medicine
- discuss some reasons behind the mistrust that some minorities have for psychiatry and organized medicine
- discuss how stigma places barriers to proper care

Registration space is limited and expected to fill quickly! To register, click: https://communique.adobeconnect.com/asktheexpert_culturalcompetence/event/registration.html

We look forward to sharing and learning together on Thursday 13 September 2018, 04:00 PM - 05:30 PM, (GMT-05:00) Eastern Time (US and Canada) (Please note that Daylight Saving Time (+01:00 hr) is in effect during this time)

More information:

See full event

details https://communique.adobeconnect.com/asktheexpert_culturalcompetence/event/event_info.html. View past recordings of Ask the Doctor here. For questions or more information, contact us at info@nami.org or call us on 703-524-7600